Pioneer Utahn, 85, Succumbs

MURRAY—Albert Lee Simons, 85, died early Saturday of causes incident to age, at the residence of a daughter, Mrs. D. Branson Brinton, 433 Vine st.

Mr. Simons, pioneer Utah stockman and rancher, came to Salt Lake City from Payson, Utah county, where he was engaged in pioneering and developing range lands, livestock and industry in that area. He also participated in the pioneering of Delta, Millard county, and was engaged in alfalfa farming there.

Born Aug. 12, 1863, in Payson, a son of Orrawill and Martha Dixon Simons, he was educated in Payson public schools and was one of the early students at Brigham Young academy, Provo. Mr. Simons, a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, had done ordinance work in the Salt Lake LDS temple, and was a member of the high priests quorum in Cottonwood LDS ward.

He married Clara Elizabeth Knight in Payson July 4, 1884.

Besides his widow he is survived by a daughter and two sons, Mrs. Ethel Brinton, Murray; Marr D. Simons, Delta; Douglas K. Simons, Salt Lake City; a brother and a sister, Grant Simons, Payson, and Mrs. Kate S. Williams, San Francisco; 13 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 11:30 a.m. in Murray First LDS ward chapel, by L. P. Parry, bishop. Friends may call at the family residence Sunday evening and Monday. Burial will be in the Payson, Utah county, cemetery.
